Healthcare Locums Plc

'HCL' or the Company

Appointment of Director

The Company is pleased to announce today the appointment of Mr Mo Dedat to the Board of HCL as Commercial Director effective immediately. Mr Dedat has previously been serving as a consultant to the Company.

Mo is a chartered accountant. During his career he has spent 10 years in the London office of PricewaterhouseCoopers, gaining experience across a range of clients and industries and covering a wide range of work. He then worked for four years at Sears plc, firstly as Group Financial Controller and then as Commercial Director for one of their high street retail chains. In 1998 he joined the IT specialist recruitment company Computer People as their Finance Director. Following the company's acquisition by Adecco in 1999, Mo's finance responsibilities grew to cover Computer People's operations in mainland Europe and he also took on operational responsibility for their e-learning business. In 2003 Mo became Finance Director of Ajilon, covering Adecco's specialist brands in the UK: Office Angels, Roevin and Jonathan Wren, in addition to Computer People. Mo's last role with Adecco was that of Finance Director for all of their UK & Ireland operations. Mo was born on June 3 1962.

Kate Bleasdale, Chief Executive Officer, commented:

'We are delighted to welcome Mo Dedat onto the Board as Commercial Director, his extensive experience in the staffing sector (where he was the UK Finance Director of Adecco UK) is invaluable in shaping the future of our rapidly growing company. Mo's key responsibilities will be to develop further our systems and processes throughout the group to enable HCL as a fast growing company to meet the challenges of growth head on. His invaluable experience at a senior level within one of the largest staffing companies in the world, strengthens the HCL management team and we are pleased to have secured this vital appointment.'
